

Hoary Cress, aka Whitetop, is a deep rooted Perennial member of the Mustard family that can grow up to 2' tall. The flowers grow atop the stem in a sort of flat-topped appearance when in bloom. The seed capsules are heart shaped and appear after early – mid summer blooming with the potential for an additional late fall bloom period depending on weather conditions.