

Leafy Spurge
(Euphorbia esula)

Buds – Crowns & Roots
Heart shaped bracts

Leafy Spurge is a Perennial that can grow to 3' tall. Originally from Eurasia this plant is characterized by yellow green flowers. The stems contain a milky substance which can cause caustic burns. Spreading from both seeds and roots, spurge has large nutrient reserves and can bloom from April to September.